

Safety First, Then Summer Fun Follows

Summer is the perfect time to kick back and relax outdoors with family and friends, or to beautify your yard and finally get around to those home improvement projects. Those of us who have winter half of the year will be dusting off our grills, boats, garden tools and power tools, and using them again for the first time since last summer. Read More>>

A Strong Foundation for First-Time Home Buyers

Today's real estate market seems insurmountable, especially for first-time home buyers. With such inflated prices, one has to be open to every buying opportunity, whether it be an older home, fixer-upper or even just one that doesn't quite tick all the boxes on your "must-have list."
